Date Sept. 17, 1974

A NEW GENERAL MANAGER IN SYRACUSE

Brian Elwell, 31, a former star center with the Syracuse Blazers has been named as the club's General Manager. An assistant coach of last year's championship team, Elwell intends to keep up the Blazers winning tradition. "I've been given complete authority to shake up the organization," says Elwell. "We feel that Blazer hockey is still the only game in town and we intend to keep it that way," Elwell, thus becomes one of the youngest General Managers, if not the youngest, in the pro hockey ranks. His premature retirement as a player was caused by two knee injuries.

WHA'S RACERS INVITE COOK TO TRAINING CAMP

John Cook, last year's NAHL Rookie of the Year and the recipient of last year's Mohawk Valley Comets Most Improved Player award, has reported to the training camp of the WHA's new Indianapolis Racers. The Comets Coach and General Manager, Brian Conacher, is also attending the camp that's being held in Flint, Michigan. As for Cook, the 21 year old center-left wing connected for 29 goals and 31 assists last year, prompting his invitation by the Racers. The native of Toronto was a bright spot for Brian Conacher's last place Comets. Speaking of Conacher, the former NHL and WHA skater has a busy month planned. Along with being in the Racers camp, Conacher also has arranged to be at the Toronto Toros camp when it officially opens on September 22. The Toros and Racers will be stocking the Comets club this season and Brian Conacher can expect far better personnel to work with this season. After attending both WHA camps, Conacher will return to Utica where he will open his Comets' camp on October 6.

UTICA FANS TO SEE MAHAVOLICH AND HENDERSON

Utica fans will have their chance to see some of hockey's greatest stars, present and future, when the parent Toronto Toros play an exhibition game with the NAHL Comets. The game, scheduled for October 13 in Utica, will bring such greats as Frank Mahavolich and Paul Henderson along with Wayne Carleton, Guy Trottier, and the most outstanding young goaltender in all of professional hockey, Gilles Gratton to the Comets home town.

REFEREE - LINESMAN'S CLINIC

A Referee and Linesman's clinic will be held at the Broome County Veteran's Memorial Arena Saturday and Sunday, September 21 and 22. NAHL Referee-In-Chief, Len Gagnon, will be on hand to conduct the clinic held between the hours of 2:00 PM to 4:00 PM. The clinic is open to anyone over the age of 18 who has the desire to be a referee or a linesman and who has the all important required skating ability to officiate in the NAHL. The free clinic, sanctioned by the NAHL is just another step in the league's drive to improve all aspects of its officiating.

A MINOR ERROR IN STARTING TIMES

For your convenience, a North American Hockey League schedule has been enclosed in this release. There is one correction that should be made regarding the starting time. The Long Island Cougars Sunday games will have a 2:30 PM start, not 2:00 PM as is listed on the printed schedule. We regret the fact that the starting time was

Release # 3

For Release: Upon receipt

Date October 16, 1974

A SECOND SEASON BEGINS FRIDAY, OCTOBER 18

A brand new season begins this Friday, October 18, with a full slate of games scheduled.

Johnstown at Maine

Coach of the Year Michel Harvey returns to Maine minus the stars of 1973-74. It will be a new look Nordique club, a physical one more than the smooth skating, slick passing team of a season ago. Reynald Tremblay, brother of J.C. Tremblay is on defense with a host of newcomers. Johnstown is bouncing back with a new Coach-General Manager, Dick Roberge and new affiliations with the Minnesota Fighting Saints and Pittsburgh Penguins. Several old Jets are gone but Galen Head, last year's Player-Coach is back and being counted on by Roberge for on-ice leadership.

Cape Cod at Mohawk Valley

The Cape Codders are a different team than a season ago. The New England Whalers and Cleveland Crusaders will supply the talent for new coach Larry Kish. Some big guns for the Codders include Bob Charlebois, John Danby, and Guy DeFour.

Mohawk Valley's second working agreement with the WHA's new Indianapolis Racers paved the way for Coach-General Manager Brian Conacher to land WHA vets Doug Brindley and Ralph Hopiavuori. Their prime affiliate, the Toronto Toros will also send players perhaps making the Comets the loop's most improved team. NAHL Rookie of the Year, John Cook, is back along with slick playmaker Bob Murphy.

Binghamton at Long Island

The Dusters return with last year's top players including top scorer Rod Bloomfield, goaltender Roger Kosar, forward Randy McGregor, and defenseman Dale McBain. It's a vastly improved Duster team aided by a hookup with the Boston Bruins that sent AHL players like Ron Boehm, Steve Stirling, and Wayne Elder to Binghamton.

New coach Ron Racette has his Cougars on the move. Vets like goaltender Rich Coutu and defenseman Jim Pritchard are back to bolster the defense. There are only five returnees from last year's club but newcomers like Bim McFall, Michel Dubois, Chris Grigg, Renaud Perron and Peter Mara should make up for the loss of last year's players. Mara led the International Hockey League in scoring last year.

Syracuse at Philadelphia

The defending champion Blazers help introduce NAHL hockey to the City of Brotherly Love. New coach Garry Peters has a few of last year's vets around like Reg Krezanski and Darryl Knowles. Working agreements with both San Diego and Michigan (WHA) will guarantee another top flight Blazer club.

Philadelphia is not the typical expansion team of castoffs. Coach-General Manager Gregg Pilling has assembled some of the finest stars of the Southern Hockey League, a few WHA vets, and some highly rated prospects from the Philadelphia Flyers organization. Ray Schultz, Dave's brother is on the Firebirds roster and like his brother, he's aggressive.

Good crowds are expected on opening night as many of the teams report healthy advance sales.

CHANGES IN STARTING TIMES

Since the original NAHL schedule was printed, there have been a few changes in the starting times. Please note the changes.

Long Island Cougars... Sunday games at 2:30 PM, not 2:00 PM

Philadelphia Firebirds...Sun.-Thurs. 7:30 PM, Fri-Sat. 8:00 PM

Mohawk Valley Comets... Saturday 8:00 PM, not 7:30 PM

AN ATTENDANCE RECORD IN JOHNSTOWN

The Johnstown Jets, beset with financial problems only a year ago, appear to have turned things around in 1974-75 under new ownership. A 25 year record for season tickets sold has been eclipsed leaving the Johnstown brass in an optimistic mood. On top of that, new working agreements with Minnesota (WHA) and Pittsburgh (NHL) should make the Jets more exciting than they've ever been.

COMETS ARE FOR REAL

THIS TIME AROUND

Their press releases told you it would be a brand new ball game, but not everyone believed it. That is, until the Mohawk Valley Comets came together on the ice. Now everyone's a believer. The Syracuse Blazers were the first team to find out. Syracuse dropped a 3-2 decision to the new Comets in Syracuse. It was the first Comets victory in Syracuse in nearly three seasons. Their last victory prior to the 3-2 win was a 4-2 win in Syracuse on November 17, 1971. Ralph Hopiavuori scored the game winner for Mohawk Valley to snap their losing skein.

The Long Island Cougars were next in line, but this time the Comets were at home in the friendly confines of the Utica Auditorium. The referee dropped the puck and 65 Comet shots on goal later, Mohawk Valley emerged with a 5-2 win. Five individual gunners lit the red light for Coach-General Manager Brian Conacher's club.

The two clubs the Comets defeated met each other in last year's championship series. Mohawk Valley happened to be in the cellar.

It looks like a different tune this year. With stronger working agreements, youth, and experience, the Comets look like they mean business.

HARVEY'S RESIGNATION LEAVES CONACHER AS LONE ORIGINAL NAHL COACH

It's not often that a Coach of the Year will resign in the early part of his second season, but it happens. In the case of Michel Harvey it did happen. Harvey received high honors last year leading his offensive minded Maine Nordiques to a regular season second place finish.

The loss of last year's stars like Mike Rouleau, Rejean Giroux, and Michel Archambault made Harvey's job much tougher this year, especially when one considers that each NAHL team made tremendous strides towards progress in the off season.

Harvey's club, losers now of 11 straight have found the going quite rough in their second year. As a result, Michel Harvey handed in his resignation leaving General Manager Maurice Ducharme to serve as acting bench coach until a replacement is named. Harvey's resignation left Mohawk Valley's Brian Conacher as the only original coach of an NAHL team still coaching in the league.

Wayne Kitchingman started his second season as the Binghamton coach, but is now the clubs' Chief Scout after his resignation was announced, leaving Conacher as the lone returnee still active in the coaching ranks.

COMETS AGAIN IN OVERTIME

Unable to buy a win over the last couple of years in Syracuse, the Mohawk Valley Comets seemed to have turned things around. The Comets, thanks to rookie John Sheridan's second goals, came away with a 4-3 overtime win, with the clinching goal scored at 2:05 of the extra stanza. The win was the second overtime win for the Comets in Syracuse this year.

A NEW AWARD IN DUSTERLAND

The Dusters have a new award, "The Duster Star of the Week", given to the outstanding Duster of the previous week. The first winner was Bill Grattor with Ron Boehm copping the award the second time around.

MARRIN BACK WITH COMETS

The Mohawk Valley Comets strengthened an already strong team with the acquisition of center-right winger Peter Marrin. Marrin began this season with the parent Toronto Toros after appearing with the Comets in 24 games at the tail end of last year. His statistics included 7 goals and 16 assists for 23 points.

A NEW COACH IN MAINE

Buried in last place the unenviable task of bringing the Nordiques into playoff contention falls into the hands of Jean Charles Gravel. Gravel, a 35 year old native of Beauce, Quebec, has spent the past two seasons coaching in the Jr. "B" level of hockey. The Nordiques rallied around their new coach coming up with a 5-1 victory over Philadelphia in Gravel's debut.

A HOT ROD IN BINGHAMTON

To look at Binghamton's Rod Bloomfield, one wonders how he scores so many points. Small in size, but blessed with extraordinary puck handling and skating skills, number 5 continues to add points in his quest for a NAHL scoring championship. Seven more points came in the Dusters 9-2 romp over the Cape Codders including three goals. For the aptly dubbed "Hot Rod", it was his second hat trick of the young season. Bloomfield leads the NAHL in scoring with 37 points in just 21 games.

FIREBIRDS LOSE YOUNG

NAHL goaltenders are breathing a bit easier these days, While they couldn't stop Philadelphia's Tom Young, a severely sprained ankle did, and as a result Young has been placed on the 14 day disabled list. Young, the Firebirds top scorer with 16 goals and 10 assists has been running 1-2 all season long with Rod Bloomfield for the scoring lead. The swift red haired right winger sprained his ankle at home against Binghamton.

JETS LOSE DUO

The Minnesota Fighting Saints seeking help for the big club looked to the Johnstown Jets for player personnel. The Saints first called up defenseman Pat Westrum before summoning for center Gary Gambucci a week later.

GOALTENDERS RETURN

The Syracuse Blazers and Johnstown Jets do have something in common. Both had proven goaltenders sitting out games through injuries. Now both teams have their netminders back. The Blazers have announced the return of Guy DeNoncourt to the active roster with Johnstown doing likewise with Ron Docken.

ANDERSON RECALLED

The Cleveland Crusaders have recalled defenseman Ron Anderson from the Cape Codders. Anderson is moving up to take the place of Paul Schmyr, out with a swollen ankle. There was no immediate announcement on when Anderson was expected back.

IF IT'S OVERTIME IT MUST BE LONG ISLAND

They've won 10 games but for some reason the Long Island Cougars are not content to play 60 minutes of hockey. Instead, they go for overtime play and it's no wonder. The club has been involved in four overtime games, all on home ice. They have won all of them, with their last win coming over Philadelphia 4-3, this past weekend. Each game has produced a different hero with Bill Fraser, Al MacKenzie, Bob Falconer, and Mike Smith coming up the winning goals.

(see other side)

A SELLOUT IN UTICA

It's one thing to have a sellout. It's a better feeling to send your fans home with a win. In defeating the defending champion Blazers, the Mohawk Valley Comets sent more than 4000 fans home happy. It was the first Comet sellout since 1970.

NORDIQUES TURN TABLES ON TOP CONTENDERS

It was Maine's turn to smile the last week of November. A tailender all season long, the Nordiques were having difficulty coming up with one victory, let alone two. But it happened much to the dismay of Binghamton and Syracuse who had to learn the hard way. By identical 5-3 scores, the Nordiques upended both of them before friendly home crowds at The Central Maine Youth Center in Lewiston, Maine. New coach, Jean Charles Gravel has seen his club win three of their first games under the new leader.

ATTENDANCE

The Mohawk Valley Comets received much attention last week with their first sellout crowd in a few years. They followed it with a second straight sellout, boosting their attendance to 27,011 in 10 games, an incredible 88 percent increase over a similar period one year ago. A strong contending club is certainly one of the reasons for the increase. Last year's Comets were the cellar dwellers of the league.

FROM THE WHA

The World Hockey Association continued to pump some fine talent to the second year NAHL. The New England Whalers assigned NHL-WHA veteran forward Don Blackburn to the Cape Codders. "Blackie" picked up a goal and two assists in his NAHL debut. Right winger Ron Walters and left winger Brian McKenzie were assigned to Mohawk Valley. Walters, a six year pro has spent the last two seasons in the WHA while McKenzie toiled last season for Edmonton. Both were assigned by the Indianapolis Racers. The Chicago Cougars assigned, then recalled, right winger Jim Benzelock and defenseman Dick Proceviat, after two games.

....AND FROM THE NHL

His name is Wayne Bianchin, and rest assured after eight goals in four games, enemy netmindors certainly know who he is. Bianchin, on assignment from the Pittsburgh Penguins, probably won't be in Johnstown too long. Bianchin, you see, played all last year with the NHL Penguins and was ticketed to return this season until he broke his neck in an off season surfing accident in Hawaii. Now playing his way back in fine style, the 21 year old center-left wing connected for a three goal hat trick in a 6-2 win over Mohawk Valley. Since his arrival, Bianchin has been the spark of the Johnstown Jets offense.

FIREBIRD STARS EXPECTED BACK

Two of the more vital cogs in Coach Gregg Pilling's offense are headed back to the line up after short bouts with injuries. Right winger Tom Young, with 16 goals and 10 assists, had been suffering from a severely sprained ankle while center Michel Plante had been bothered by a bruised heel. Plante is back but not quite at full speed and Young is expected back sometime next week.

TRANSACTIONS HIGHLIGHT BUSY WEEK IN NAHL

It was a week of long distance phone calls with North American Hockey League teams looking to make the necessary moves to improve their position.

From the looks of things, the Maine Nordiques certainly improved their club. Purchased were forwards Rick Molinaro and Richard Dupras. Molinaro, a right winger, came by way of the Cape Codders where he scored 39 goals last year. Dupras, a center, came up with 24 goals for last years' Mohawk Valley Comets. Dupras will join former Comet teammate Bob Murphy in Maine. Both deals were cash transactions with no players involved.

Rugged rookie Jamie Bateman joined the Syracuse Blazers with Doug Volmar recalled to San Diego. Defenseman Reg Krezanski was also returned to Syracuse.

With Mark Bousquet out with a knee injury the Philadelphia Firebirds moved to fill a vacancy on their roster. Added from Richmond (AHL) was left winger Steve Short who scored one goal and five assists in the deep south while seeing limited action.

Johnstown regained the services of defender Pat Westrum along with forward Joe Robertson, just acquired via the trade route by the Minnesota Fighting Saints. Right winger Galen Head has been placed on the 14 day injury list. Left winger, Ned Dowd was added to the list. The Jets owned the waiver list recently when they handed walking papers to defensemen Jim Wilcox and John Perpich and forwards Norm Descoteaux and Moe St. Jacques. Wilcox and Descoteaux were both members of last year's Jet team.

The shuffle took place in Cape Cod with the Codders receiving then giving back forwards Don Blackburn and Nick Fotiu and goaltender Ted Ouimet to New England (WHA). Long Island joined the shuffle the same way with defenseman Dick Proceviat and forwards Jim Benzelock and Don Gordon assigned, then recalled by Chicago.

A ruptured spleen knocked Duster defenseman Dale Mc Bain out of the lineup. In place of Mc Bain, the Dusters activated forward Steve Langdon, on assignment from the Boston Bruins organization. The Bruins organization also assigned netminder Ken Broderick to the Dusters. Broderick the top goaltender in the now defunct Western Hockey League two years ago comes to Binghamton by way of the AHL Rochester Americans.

SOME NAHL HEROES FINDING

Date January 9, 1975

WHA TO THEIR LIKING

Three of last year's NAHL stars haven't seen much, if any, NAHL action this year. The reason is that they have advanced to the World Hockey Association. The three, Ray Adduono, Nick Fotiu, and Richard Brodeur are just three of several NAHL skaters up with the big clubs.

Adduono, a center on last years champion Syracuse Blazers, has stuck with San Diego despite a rap that he was too small to make it. Ray's 31 points in 32 games was good for fourth place in the Mariners team scoring race. Another important factor was his plus .15 figure, a strong ratio based on goals scored while on the ice and goals allowed while on the ice. Add to this, that of his 31 points, 24 were listed as important. Clearly, Ray Adduono has earned his keep in San Diego.

Nick Fotiu led all professional leagues' in penalty minutes last year with 371 minutes in 72 games. His aggressiveness and overall potential convinced the New England Whalers to sign him and that's where the big guy has spent most of the year. Appearing in just 21 games, Nick hasn't seen all that much ice time. While his statistics would not mean much, the fact is that the WHA life has had an effect on "Nicky." On a recent assignment to Cape Cod (where he played last year) he appeared to be a much more disciplined hockey player than he was the year before.

Richard Broduer's netminding made the Maine Nordiques a strong entry in last year's NAHL. Then he was called up to Quebec where he has remained. Partaking in some 24 WHA games this year, the young netminder has come up with 15 wins as opposed to 9 losses. His goals against average stood at 3.40 and he was the number one man in goal with Serge Aubry as his backup.

There are countless others who started the 1974-75 season with NAHL teams but have since advanced to the WHA. Players like Peter Mara and Mark Lomenda (Long Island) and Ross Smith and John Sheridan (Mohawk Valley) are up with their respective parent clubs.

All of which shows that the NAHL is having a noticeable effect on the World Hockey Association.

The following statistics have been compiled by league statistician Howard Steinhart. These statistics are official and have been updated through the end of 1974. Any questions or comments regarding these statistics should be channeled through the league statistician, at this number (212) 998-1763.

NAHL SPEAKS ABOUT EXPANSION

AHL CITIES-----A POSSIBILITY

Since the beginning of the 1974-75 hockey season, Commissioner Bob Dextraze has had his eyes on both the present and the future of the NAHL. By future, we refer to expansion and next year the eight team loop will probably have some company in the form of expansion franchises.

In early October the expansion talk centered on places like Erie, Pennsylvania, Buffalo, New York, and Worcester, Massachusetts. Now the talk from out of town newspapers involves other cities. Cities that are losing large sums of money in the older American Hockey League. A Rochester, New York newspaper reported that the AHL Americans might be thinking of a move to the two year old North American Hockey League. Other teams like Springfield and Baltimore have been reporting heavy financial losses.

A switch to the NAHL would give clubs like Rochester a chance to break even or make money, rather than flirt with a swim in red ink. At the same time, the fans would see a fast and most exciting style of play.

About the expansion talks, Commissioner Bob Dextraze speaks from a position of strength. "We started out with 7 teams last year," noted Dextraze "and this year with the same 7 plus one new franchise awarded to Philadelphia. We were the only league to retain all of its franchises from a year ago and add one more franchise during the off season."

As for next year, Dextraze continued, "any of the new franchise applicants will have to meet our requirements before they become a part of our league." As for the AHL cities, Dextraze responded, "we'd be interested in them" said Dextraze while strongly stating that "up to this point the newspapers have been doing the talking, I have yet to be approached by AHL

North American Hockey League / Executive Park, Stuyvesant Plaza / Albany, N.Y. 12203 / Telephone (518) 489-1197

executives. The AHL is a fine league with a great tradition. On the ice and off they have developed a reputable name. With all operating costs up, and the economy down, it's quite possible that some of the AHL clubs will be seeking an alternative." That alternative could be the NAHL.

"If we are approached by AHL cities, we will give them our undivided attention and every possible consideration," continued Dextraze. "By joining our league AHL clubs would be playing against NAHL clubs that have been rated on a competitive basis with the AHL by players, coaches, and General Managers that have been active in both leagues. There's parity in our league and that's a major selling point in our favor. We are a two year old league but we're well advanced for our age."

NAHL ANNOUNCES PLAYOFF PLANS

The second year North American Hockey League has announced plans for the upcoming playoff season, due to begin sometime late March. "Based on the way our regular season has gone, I look forward to a most exciting and competitive playoff season," enthused NAHL Commissioner Bob Dextraze, who announced the league's course of action from his executive offices in Albany.

NAHL PLAYOFFS

HOW THEY WILL WORK

Seven teams will qualify for the NAHL playoffs.

Here is the breakdown.

Quarter finals - best 3 out of 5 series

Team # 2 in regular season standings meets team # 7

3 versus # 6

other

pairings

4 versus # 5

The first place team will draw a bye in the quarter final series.

The quarterfinals are due to begin on March 25 and end on or around March 30.

In all of the series, the team with the best record during the regular season will have the home ice advantage.

Semi finals - best 4 out of 7

Team # 1 will play the winner of 4 versus 5

winner of 2 versus 7 plays winner of 3 versus 6

Semi finals are slated to begin on April 1 and end no later than April 10.

ERIE IN NAHL....MAYBE

Date February 13, 1975

North American Hockey League expansion plans for 1975-76 indicate that the city of Erie, Pennsylvania stands a good chance of joining the young league.

"No one knows for sure who will get in just yet," according to Commissioner Bob Dextraze, "But the Erie area certainly qualifies in every respect." Dextraze also noted that the city has a brand new hockey facility that is up to the league's high standards.

Seating 4,450 for hockey, "the Erie County Fieldhouse offers top notch visibility," says Paul Gamsby, Fieldhouse Manager "in that every seat is close to the action. Erie County does not have a professional sports team of its own. If we succeed in getting one, I'm sure that it will benefit our minor hockey program, the community, the building, and the County who I feel would support a properly run venture," offered Gamsby.

Gamsby went on to indicate that the day of a professional sports team for Erie may be "closer than one thinks." "I have had exploratory talks with several groups with regard to starting a North American Hockey League franchise in Erie. Some talks were just general, nothing specific, while other groups have been very serious in their dealings with us."

The city of Erie has a population of some 130,000 while a radius of 40 miles from the city of Erie includes approximately another quarter of a million people.

Major league teams have expressed an interest in working with an NAHL team in Erie and the affiliations are a key part of the battle. Right now, healthy ownership is needed and in that respect, Gamsby said, "There's one group that has already inspected our facilities and were impressed. Right now that group is trying to package things together."

Gamsby neglected to name the group noting that "It would be unwise at this time since nothing is official."

He also declined to indicate whether the interested party was from Erie or out of State.

NAHL CROWDS RESPONDING TO STRETCH DRIVE

BUFFALO MAY JOIN LOOP NEXT YEAR

It's getting close to playoff time, in all levels of hockey. Attendance generally climbs during this period and the NAHL is showing a dramatic rise in attendance. "It's not just the fact that the stretch drive is upon us," notched Commissioner Bob Dextraze. "I think that in a place like Philadelphia, the people are realizing that our brand of hockey is not only exciting, but that our teams are all competitive with one another."

Plagued by a late start, and, as a result, not enough good home dates, the Firebirds of Philadelphia started slowly. The club started winning but more important they continue to win and for a good portion of the year this expansion club (in name only) was on top of the NAHL standings. Crowds were small till recently. A look at the situation now shows that the club has drawn over 4000 fans on a generally bad Monday night, and over 5000 fans for a weekend night battle. The Firebirds play their home games at the Philadelphia Civic Center where a World Hockey Association team once played.

Binghamton, the league's pride and joy in the attendance department continues to pull in their 4700 plus crowds.

In Syracuse, where the so called experts said that the rival American Hockey League Eagles would force the NAHL Blazers out of town by January 1, 1975, the signs are encouraging. A crowd of 3798 turned out on a weekday night to watch the NAHL's defending champions. On Friday, Feb. 28 versus arch-rival Binghamton, Syracuse officials are expecting a complete sellout of over 6000 tickets. A new league record for attendance could be set that night.

Losing what they considered large sums of money last season, the Johnstown Jets came out fighting (on the ice and off) this year under new ownership. It has payed off as crowds are way up in Johnstown. A recent 7-1 win over Mohawk Valley was performed before 3794 fans. It was the 600th career win for the Johnstown Hockey Club since its founding in 1950. That crowd boosted the Jets average to over 2600 per game. A recent win streak (12 of 15) elevated the Jets from seventh place to fourth and brought a further increase in paying spectators. If the Jets can continue their fine play they may be able to boost their average attendance up to 3000 fans per game.

The other teams are getting there too. Mohawk Valley has had a few sellout crowds this season and their average of 2,757 per game reflects a dramatic turnabout in one years time. Maine drew 2492 and 2341 in back to back games. Long Island hits a high of 3362 (less than 700 short of capacity) for a Sunday afternoon game, and the Cape Codders 2530 customers on a Wednesday night. The Codders feat was even more remarkable in that just 24 hours prior to faceoff the game was in danger of never being played. A building problem forced the Cape Cod Coliseum to close its doors, leaving its main tenants, the Codders, homeless for a day. The problem was corrected and all factors considered the Codders drew a fine crowd that night.

With prospects looking bright for the present 8 league members, there was further talk of expansion. The city of Erie, Pennsylvania, was prominently mentioned last week but this week it's Buffalo, home of the very successful NHL Sabres.

You've probably heard the name of Willie Marshall, spokesman for an interested Buffalo group. If the name Marshall doesn't ring a bell, suffice to say that he owns most of the scoring records in the AHL including most goals, assists, points, and hat tricks for regular season play and playoff competition.

Presently Marshall is the manager of the Tonawanda Sports Center located in North Tonawanda, New York, a suburb of Buffalo. The Sports Center, when complete, will have 3 ice rinks and 12 indoor tennis courts (already complete) represents the 2nd largest tennis court facility in the United States. At present, two of the three hockey rinks are complete. One of the rinks holds some 2800 spectators and could serve as a temporary home for a new NAHL franchise in Tonawanda if their new building was not ready for occupancy by the beginning of the 1975-76 hockey season. That new building, which would be the permanent home for the proposed Buffalo entry would seat some 6000 fans.

With Marshall involved with the Buffalo group and then being the manager of the Arena, it would be safe to say that an NAHL team playing in the Sports Center would get the choicest home dates available.

Marshall went a step further in his groups' pursuit of an NAHL franchise. It was learned that on the afternoon of Monday, February 17, 1975, Marshall had a meeting with the top brass of the Buffalo Sabres. The meeting included Punch Imlach, Floyd Smith, and Fred Hunt Sr. While no formal agreement(s) was signed, Marshall emerged contented. "From what I gathered, Buffalo will be able to give us players if we are successful in setting up our franchise," said Marshall, "but just how many players is not known at this time. Marshall concluded by saying that "for a first meeting I would have to say I am most satisfied with the interest and the consideration that the Sabres extended to me"

Marshall, a native of Kirkland, Ontario identified the name of Dr. Dudley Turecki as a principal in the Sports Center and along with Marshall were two of the driving forces in the quest for an NAHL franchise. Other members of that group were not named.

Expansion for the two year old circuit seems likely. Just how many teams is not known at this particular moment. Right now though, Buffalo, New York, and Erie, Pennsylvania have to look like the best prospects for NAHL membership in 1975-76.

FIREBIRDS SET NEW NAHL ATTENDANCE MARK

The score was 5-0 in favor of Philadelphia. Rejean Lemelin had just blanked the Cape Codders for his third shutout of the year. In the stands sat two proud owners, Robin Roberts and Ed Piszek amongst a crowd of 9,184, a new league record. With seating capacity listed at 8,115, it meant that more than 1000 people could not enjoy the comfort of sitting down.

Said an ecstatic Roberts, "that game Friday was the highlight of the season as far as I'm concerned. We got off to a slow start to be sure but now I think we have proven that there is room for the Firebirds in Philadelphia."

Roberts and Piszek pointed out the fact that season tickets and playoff ticket requests were steadily rising. Commissioner Bob Dextraze was most pleased with the Firebirds success, noting "it's a fine tribute to the owners, players, and staff of the Firebirds. The fans have treated the Firebirds well and the entire league is pleased with their progress."

The following statistics are the only official statistics of the North American Hockey League, as compiled by League Statistician Howard Steinhart. For more information, contact him at (212)998-1763. These statistics are complete through the month of February.

NOTE TO THE NEWS MEDIA

AT THIS TIME THE NORTH AMERICAN HOCKEY WOULD LIKE TO THANK THE NEWS MEDIA FOR THE FINE COVERAGE IT RECEIVED THIS PAST SEASON.

IT WAS A LONG SEASON AND YOUR COOPERATION HELPED TO MAKE OUR JOB THAT MUCH EASIER AND OUR SEASON A LITTLE BIT SHORTER.

AGAIN, WE THANK YOU FOR WORKING WITH US THIS YEAR.

HAVE A GOOD SUMMER

NOTE TO THE NEWS MEDIA

AT THIS TIME THE NORTH AMERICAN HOCKEY WOULD LIKE TO THANK THE NEWS MEDIA FOR THE FINE COVERAGE IT RECEIVED THIS PAST SEASON.

IT WAS A LONG SEASON AND YOUR COOPERATION HELPED TO MAKE OUR JOB THAT MUCH EASIER AND OUR SEASON A LITTLE BIT SHORTER.

AGAIN, WE THANK YOU FOR WORKING WITH US THIS YEAR.

HAVE A GOOD SUMMER

For Release: Upon receipt

Date April 18, 1975

The following playoff information has been assembled to aid the news media in its effort to follow the championship series between Binghamton and Johnstown.

As an added convenience, the final regular season standings have been enclosed along with the playoff results to date.

The NAHL finalists Binghamton and Johnstown finished in third and fourth respectively during the regular season. Binghamton had to knock off Mohawk Valley and Long Island to reach the finals while Johnstown upended Cape Cod and Syracuse en route to their lofty position.

Should any additional material be needed, the Publicity Director of each team should be contacted.

THE SCOUTING REPORTS ON BINGHAMTON - JOHNSTOWN

BINGHAMTON- Good goaltending is essential in the playoffs and Rick Lemay and Roger Kosar gave the Dusters what they needed in the nets. Lemay was red hot in the Long Island series and in at least a couple of games he alone was the difference in Duster victories. The defense hits the opposition and in Paul Brown the Dusters have one of the league's most aggressive defensemen. Binghamton's games though are won up front. Rod Bloomfield is a bonafide star in the NAHL and his supporting cast knows how to generate goals. Veteran Ted McCaskill has plenty of good hockey left and his experience, along with Ron Boehm's experience has helped the young Dusters. Coach Wayne Clairmont has gotten the most out of his club. The large capacity crowds in Binghamton are invaluable to the Dusters and more of the same crowds can be expected for the playoffs.

JOHNSTOWN - Another surprise team emerged here in the NAHL. Coach Dick Roberge was named on the second all-star team and he truly deserved the honor. Everyone knew how good a goaltender Ron Docken was, what they didn't know was how good their other netminder, Lou Levasseur, was. This year they found out as the popular Levasseur enjoyed an outstanding year and his fine play has continued on through the playoffs. People are still talking about Levasseur's playoff performance versus Syracuse. On defense the Jets are rugged, led by Bob Boyd, Pat Westrum, and Guido Tenisi. Boyd and Westrum boast of WHA experience. Added finesse comes in the form of Francois Ouimet. Up front the Carlson brothers have excited Jet fans all season long. Brother Steve in fact, notched the winning goal in the 5-4 deciding game victory in Syracuse. The Jets have some other fine forwards up front including scoring threats Jerry Welsh and Jean Tetrault. Galen Head and Mike Chernoff are other forwards that bear watching. This club was the best road team in the NAHL especially over the second half of the regular season. Their play on the road could very well be the key if the Jets are to skate around with the Lockhart Cup.
